

Alfresco Technical Consultant

Formtek has an opening for an Alfresco Technical Consultant.

The Alfresco Technical Consultant should be able to work with prospects and customers to understand their needs, conceptualize a content management solution and determine the implications on Alfresco and Formtek software. Once engaged by a customer, the Alfresco Technical Consultant is responsible for delivering the agreed solution which may include Formtek's Software Extensions, Formtek's Engineering Data Management Solution, customizations developed by Formtek's development staff, and/or configuration modifications requested by the customer.

This individual will typically work in cooperation with customers and the Formtek support staff to complete Alfresco engagements and support customer activities involving Alfresco software. Engagements may require on-site visits to customer locations or resolving customer questions/activities via VPN.

When not engaged with customers, the Technical Consultant will be called upon to assist Formtek product development activities and Formtek business development activities.

Travel requirements are projected to be 25-50%.

Successful candidates should have:

- Bachelor's degree in Computer Science or related technical field.
- Minimum of 5 years of IT experience.
- Familiarity with content management solutions including familiarity with Alfresco.
- Experience with Windows and Linux Operating Systems.
- Experience using relational database management systems.
- Comfort working in a distributed environment.
- Comfort working with prospects and/or customers on paid engagements or business development activities.
- Ability to communicate clearly.
- Alfresco ACA certification is a plus.

We prefer candidates in the Pittsburgh, PA or Concord, CA areas, but are open to candidates nationwide who are able to work effectively from their home office.

Formtek offers the right candidate an exceptional opportunity to contribute to an entrepreneurial and supportive environment. We provide an attractive benefits package including full medical, dental and vision coverage as well as a 401(K) plan.

Formtek, Inc. is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
